

T8. AUDITOR FOR POST-OFFICE DEPARTMENT

[The adjustment of post-office accounts was performed at the Treasury Department from the earliest period of its establishment, but the office of the Auditor of the Treasury for the Post-Office Department was not established until July 2, 1836. It was called the Office of the 6th Auditor until Oct. 1, 1894.]

Classification no.

T8.1: Annual reports

(date) [Two annual reports have usually been made, one to the Postmaster-General, which, from 1841-1909 (except 1842-46, none issued), is included in annual reports of Post-Office Department (P1.1.); and one made to the Secretary of the Treasury, which, for 1853-1905, is found in annual reports of Treasury Department (Finance reports, T1.1.). Both reports are frequently included in the Post-Office reports and both are sometimes found in the Treasury Department reports. 1871-1909, both reports have usually been issued separately also in one pamphlet.]
