

Classification
no.

Y4. COMMITTEES OF CONGRESS—Continued

Y4.C75: Conduct of the War, Joint Committee on—Continued

R29<sup>6</sup> Same [testimony, Feb. 6, 1864–May 22, 1865, 1st session and 2d session, 38th Congress [v. 3]: Sherman–Johnston; Light-draft monitors; Massacre of Cheyenne Indians; Ice contracts; Rosecrans's campaigns; Miscellaneous. 1865. [1214–142] [See, for supplemental report, Y4.C75:Su<sup>1,2</sup>.]

Su7<sup>1</sup> Supplemental report [to report of May 22, 1865], Senate report 142, 38th Congress, 2d session: [Reports of W. T. Sherman and George H. Thomas]. 1866. v. 1. [1241–unnumbered]

Su7<sup>2</sup> Same: [Reports of John Pope, J. G. Foster, A. Pleasanton, E. A. Hitchcock, P. H. Sheridan, J. B. Ricketts, communication and memorial of Norman Wiard]. 1866. v. 2. [1242–unnumbered]

Y4.C76<sup>1</sup>: Conference Committees (House and Senate)

H75 Homestead. Statement made by House conferees on S. 6155 [60th Congress, 2d session, for enlarged homestead]. [1909.] [Same as p. 3 and 4 of House report 2135, 60th Congress, 2d session.]

Im6 Immigration. Part of Senate document 318, 59th Congress, 2d session, comparative print showing changes that enactment of S. 4403 [to regulate immigration of aliens into United States], would make in existing law. [1907.] [In 5072–318]

Y4.C76<sup>2</sup>: Contract Labor, Convicts, and Paupers, Select Committee on Importation of (House)

R29 Report [on H. 12291, 50th Congress, 2d session] of select committee to inquire into alleged violation of laws prohibiting importation of contract laborers, paupers, convicts, and other classes, with testimony [July 25–Dec. 26, 1888], documents, and consular reports submitted to committee. 1889. [Testimony and consular reports have separate title-pages. The imprint to testimony is 1888 and to consular reports, 1889. The report, views of minority, and views of Mr. Spinola are in [2673–3792].]

Y4.C81<sup>1</sup>: Corrupt Combinations of Members of Congress, Alleged, Select Committee to Investigate (House)

R29 Reports [34th Congress, 3d session, in cases of William A. Gilbert, William W. Welch, Francis S. Edwards, and Orsamus B. Matteson]. Feb. 19, 1857 [reprinted] Mar. 3, 1857. (34th Cong. 3d sess. H. rp. 243; serial no. 914.) [The bureau edition ordered printed Mar. 3, 1857, contains same matter as Congressional edition though rearranged.]

Y4.C81<sup>2</sup>: Corruptions in Government, Alleged, Select Committee to Investigate (House)

C83 Covode investigation [report of committee and documents bearing upon matters under investigation]. [1860.] [Made up of 36th Congress, 1st session, House reports 648, 621, 249, serial nos. 1071, 1070, 1068, and 35th Congress, 2d session, House report 184, serial no. 1019.]

Y4.C86: Credit Mobilier Bribery, Alleged, Select Committee to Investigate (House)

P75 Poland Committee. Report, Feb. 18, 1873 [42d Congress, 3d session, by Luke P. Poland from select committee no. 1, appointed under resolution of Dec. 2, 1872, to investigate whether any member of House was bribed by Oakes Ames, or any other person or corporation, to perform certain legislative acts for benefit of Union Pacific Railroad Company by presents of stock in Credit Mobilier of America; with hearings, Dec. 12, 1872–Feb. 19, 1873]. 1873. ([42d Cong. 3d sess. H. rp. 77]; serial no. 1577.)