Y4.R24: Reconstruction Joint Committee

- J82 Journal [Dec. 4, 1865-Feb. 9, 1867, 39th Congress, 1st and 2d sessions]. [1884.]

[The joint committee was composed of very prominent men, and the details of its action, as shown by the Journal of its proceedings, were thought by the Senate of the 48th Congress to be worth printing. An order was passed Feb. 26, 1884, more than 17 years after the committee had dissolved, for printing 6000 copies of its Journal. As printed, the Journal makes a pamphlet of 49 p., without cover, title-page, imprint date, or place of publication. It has a half title, reading thus: "39th Congress, 1st session, Joint Committee on Reconstruction, Journal." Another half title, like the first, except that "2d session" is substituted for "1st session," is found at p. 43. The only conclusion to be drawn from these half titles is that the document was printed during the 39th Congress (1865-67), and not the slightest clue is given by the document itself to the fact that it was not printed till the 48th Congress, 1st session (1884). Why it was not also printed as a numbered document, as required by law (H. S. sec. 3792), is not now known. This Journal, though the number of copies printed was comparatively large, has already become very rare. The only copy concerning which the Public Documents Library has any information is the one in its own file.]

- R29¹ Report [and testimony, Jan. 22-May 19, 1866], 1st session, 39th Congress. 1866. [1273-30] [This volume does not contain the minority report of the committee which is included in the Congressional edition.]
- R29² Report [with views of minority]. [1866.] [In 1273-30]

†This Checklist ends with the publications of the calendar year 1909. A new committee has since become a publishing office, necessitating an additional class under Y4., the series title of which is as follows:
