

Classification
no.I 3. 2d CENSUS, 1800—Continued*I 3.5: Final volumes

(nos.) [Book 1] Return of whole number of persons within the several districts of United States, according to act providing for 2d census or enumeration of inhabitants of United States, passed Feb. 28, 1800. Printed by order of House of Representatives. [Washington, 1801.] 2 l.+34+[36] p. f° [Includes also page numbered 12*. Pages are unnumbered after p. 34. These unnumbered pages, except last, are lettered 2A-2R (J being omitted) and have printed inscription: Duane, printer. Letter of transmittal from Department of State is dated Dec. 8, 1801, and signed by James Madison. Schedule for Tennessee, mentioned as not received in letter of transmittal dated Dec. 8, 1801, is included, bearing date Dec. 22, 1801. At end is a corrected schedule for Maryland, dated Dec. 21, 1801.]

Same. Washington City, printed at Apollo Press by Wm. Duane & Son, 1802. [3]+9-88, p. 1 folded tab. 8° [The corrected schedule for Maryland, dated Dec. 21, 1801, which in the original folio print appears at the end, is in this reprint inserted after the Maryland schedule, being p. 67 and 68 of the reprint.]

I 4. 3d CENSUS, 1810I 4.1: Annual reports

(date) [None issued.]

I 4.2: General publications

(CT) [None issued.]

I 4.3: Bulletins

(nos.) [None issued.]

I 4.4: Circulars

(nos.) [None issued.]

I 4.5: Final volumes

(nos.) [Book 1] Aggregate amount of each description of persons within United States of America and Territories thereof, agreeably to actual enumeration made according to law, in year 1810. [Washington, 1811.] 180 p. f°

[Book 2] Statement of arts and manufactures of America, exhibiting: I. Collection of facts, evincing their benefactions to agriculture, commerce, navigation, and fisheries, and their subserviency to public defense, with an indication of certain existing modes of conducting them, peculiarly important to United States; II. Collection of additional facts, tending to show practical foundation, actual progress, condition, and establishment of American arts and manufactures, and their connection with wealth and strength of United States; together with—One series of tables of the several branches of American manufactures, exhibiting them by States, Territories, and districts, so far as they were returned in reports of marshals and of secretaries of Territories and their respective assistants, in autumn of year 1810; together with similar returns of certain doubtful goods, productions of soil, and agricultural stock, so far as they have been reported; and another—Series of tables of the several branches of American manufactures, exhibiting them in every county of the Union, so far as they were returned in reports of marshals and of secretaries of Territories and their respective assistants, in autumn of year 1810; which tables were prepared in execution of an instruction of Albert Gallatin, Secretary of Treasury, given by him in obedience to resolution of Congress of 19th day of March, 1812. [Washington] May 30, 1813. 233 p. 4° * [Garfield's report and Lunt's Key to publications of U. S. Census, Boston, 1888, say 170 p.]