N1.1: Annual reports

[The Public Documents Library has no Department editions of these reports prior to 1862. For the early years, the reports of the Navy Department appeared in the series of Congressional documents, usually forming only part of a volume. Since 1862, there have been both Congressional and Department editions. See, for papers relating to naval affairs, Jan. 20, 1794-June 15, 1836, American state papers, naval affairs, serial nos. 023-026.]

- ✓ H14³ Hall, Charles Francis. Scientific results of [3d] United States Arctic expedition, steamer Polaris, C. F. Hall commanding: v. 1, Physical observations; by Emil Bessels. 1876. [No other volumes on scientific results of expedition have been published.]
- Herndon, William Lewis, and Gibbon, Lardner (note).
[The explorations of which an account is given in the volumes listed below were made in 1851 and 1852. Pt. 1, by Herndon, was transmitted to Congress Feb. 9, 1853, and pt. 2, by Gibbon, was submitted Feb. 10, 1854. These were printed by both Senate and House.]
- Pt. 1 was ordered printed by the Senate Feb. 10, 1853, and a later resolution of the same session, agreed to Mar. 3, 1853, provided for printing 10,000 extra copies of the part which had already been submitted, also for the same number of copies of pt. 2 when it should be submitted, and for the maps and charts accompanying the report. Both parts of the report appeared as Senate executive document 36, 32d Congress, 2d session, in sheep and in cloth.
- Pt. 1 was printed by the House under order of Feb. 12, 1853, appearing as House executive document 43, 32d Congress, 2d session. A resolution adopted Jan. 6, 1854, provided for the printing of 10,000 extra copies of the reports with the accompanying maps and plates, and another resolution adopted Apr. 13, 1854, called for 20,000 copies more. In the sheep bound edition pt. 1 appears only as House executive document 43, 32d Congress, 2d session, and pt. 2 appears only as House executive document 53, 33d Congress, 1st session, but the extra copies of both pts. 1 and 2 were printed as House executive document 53, 33d Congress, 1st session. Entries for the cloth bound copies are given below.]
- H43¹ Herndon, William Lewis, and Gibbon, Lardner. Exploration of valley of Amazon made by Wm. Lewis Herndon and Lardner Gibbon: pt. 1, by [Wm. Lewis] Herndon. Washington, Robert Armstrong, public printer, 1853. 414 + iv p. 16 pl. (32d Cong. 2d sess. S. ex. [doc.] 36; serial no. 663.) [Sheep bound edition is identical with the cloth edition except that it includes the 3 maps, which, in cloth edition, are separately bound; see N1.8:H43².]
- ✓ H43² Same: pt. 1, maps. [Printed by order of Senate.]
- ✓ H43³ Same: pt. 1, by [Wm. Lewis] Herndon. Washington, Robert Armstrong, public printer, 1854. iv + 417 + iv p. 16 pl. [Cover-title reads: Valley of the Amazon, pt. 1. Some of the copies have cover-title "Herndon's Valley of the Amazon," and have the iv p. of contents preceding the title-page. Although all of the cloth bound copies examined in the Public Documents Library have on title-page the notation "33d Congress, 1st session, House executive [document] 53," this designation properly belongs only to pt. 2, Gibbon's report, which was submitted during the 33d Congress, 1st session, and was printed as House executive document 53 of that session. Herndon's report appears among the House documents in the sheep bound Congressional set only as 32d Congress, 2d session, House executive document 43, in serial no. 678. The sheep bound edition is cast somewhat differently and has 414 + iv p. 16 pl.; it has bound in at the end the 3 maps which in the cloth edition are separately bound, see N1.8:H43⁴; the sheep edition does not contain the Addendum added in 1854, which appears in the cloth bound copies as p. 397-417. The Public Documents Library has no information as to whether any of the cloth bound copies bore the notation of the 32d Congress, 2d session, House executive document 43.] 678
- H43⁴ Same: pt. 1, maps. [Printed by order of House. These have "House document" stamped in cover.]
- H43⁵ Same: pt. 2, by Lardner Gibbon. Washington, A. O. P. Nicholson, public printer, 1854. (32d Cong. 2d sess. S. ex. [doc.] 36; serial no. 664.) * [In sheep bound edition the 2 maps are bound in with text; in cloth edition they are separately bound, see N1.8:H43⁶.]
- ✓ H43⁶ Same: pt. 2, maps. [Printed by order of Senate.]
- ✓ H43⁷ Same: pt. 2, by Lardner Gibbon. Washington, A. O. P. Nicholson, public printer, 1854. x + [1] + 339 p. il. 36 pl. (33d Cong. 1st sess. H. ex. [doc.] 53; serial no. 722.) [Sheep bound edition is identical with the cloth edition except that it includes the 2 maps, which, in cloth, are separately bound; see N1.8:H43⁸.]
- H43⁸ Same: pt. 2, maps. * [Printed by order of House.]

- Todd, David P. U. S. scientific expedition to west Africa, 1889 (note).
[On Mar. 2, 1889 (Stat. L. v. 25, p. 920), Congress provided as follows: "That the sum of $5,000 appropriated by act of Congress approved Dec. 22, 1888, to defray the expenses of observing a total eclipse of the sun [Jan. 1, 1889], and which, by reason of the delay in the passage of said act, was not expended, is hereby re-appropriated, and the Secretary of the Navy is authorized to use the said $5,000 to defray the expense of sending a scientific expedition to the west coast of Africa to observe the total eclipse of the sun which will occur on Dec. 22, 1889."
Prof. David P. Todd was placed in charge of the expedition and the Secretary of the Navy detailed the U. S. S. Pensacola to carry the members to and from Africa. The Pensacola sailed from New York Oct. 16, 1889, and reached the United States again early in May, 1890.
No final report of the expedition was issued. The only official publications issued by the Government were Bulletins 1-18, listed below.]

N1.9: Compilations of laws

- 826 Laws in relation to naval establishment and Marine Corps, collected and arranged by order of Secretary of Navy, from laws of United States, to end of 1st session of 19th Congress. Washington, Davis and Force, 1826. 12°
- 841 Laws in relation to Navy and Marine Corps to close of 2d session of 26th Congress [1789–1840], with acts and resolutions granting medals, swords, and votes of thanks, or having reference to special objects, also private acts for relief of individuals, [and] table of appropriations and expenditures for naval service, 1791–1840, to which are prefixed Constitution of United States and synopsis of legislation of Congress respecting naval affairs during Revolutionary War; compiled and arranged by Benjamin Homans. Washington, J. and G. S. Gideon, 1841.
- 843 Same, with appendix containing laws passed at 27th Congress. Washington, J. and G. S. Gideon, 1843.
- [In 1848, a revised edition of the laws was compiled and issued by Mechlin and Winder in the same volume with their General register of Navy and Marine Corps; see N1.10:848².
- In 1859, appeared Laws relating to Navy and Marine Corps from formation of Government to 1859, etc.; compiled by John F. Callan and A. W. Russell, and published in Baltimore by John Murphy & Co. The compilers of this volume were clerks to the Senate Committee on Military Affairs and the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs, respectively. The compilation was a private publication and although it undoubtedly was used for reference by naval authorities, there is no evidence of its having been authorized by the Navy Department, or that Congress subscribed for any part of the edition. Hence it can not be considered a Government publication even in the broadest acceptance of the term, and it is therefore omitted from this Checklist.]

N1.10: Navy register various sizes

[The title-page of the publication popularly known by the above name reads, Register of commissioned and warrant officers of Navy and Marine Corps, and the present title varies only slightly from the form which has been used for the annual January issue from the earliest years of its existence.

Between 1798 and 1814 several lists of officers in the naval service appeared as private publications, two of which are noted below. Lists for 1806, 1812, 1814, and 1818-25 are contained in American state papers, volume on Naval affairs.

The first volume of the official Navy register was issued in 1814, and with the exception of 1816, when none was issued, and certain variations in 1861, 1862, 1878, and 1887, it has appeared regularly ever since.

Up to 1847 the size varied, some being 16° and some 12°. From 1848 to 1853, part of the edition was 12° and part was printed with wider margins as a 4° publication. Since 1854 it has been uniformly 8° except the 2d edition of July, 1895.

Between 1835 and 1848 certain publications supplementary to the annual official register were issued as private ventures, of which there are noted below the mid-year and quarterly registers of Benjamin Homans, and a General register of Navy and Marine Corps, 1798-1848, by Mechlin & Winder.

In 1861 a revision of the January list was issued Aug. 31, and in 1862, the only issue for the year appeared Sept. 1. Beginning in 1866 a semiannual issue corrected to July or August was issued each year, except 1876 and 1879, up to July, 1887. From 1888 to 1892 the register was issued only once a year, in January. In 1893, the July publication was resumed under title, List and station of commissioned and warrant officers of Navy and Marine Corps on active list. This was again discontinued with July, 1907, similar information being after that time included in the monthly publication, Navy and Marine Corps list and directory (N1.24).

Prior to 1896, the annual issues of the Navy register did not appear in the Congressional set. Certain special lists of officers for various periods between 1815 and 1889 may be found in the Congressional set as follows: [94-43], [291-36], [397-173], [981-17], [1176-3], [1316-19], [1996-126], [2678-3].

Between 1848 and 1863, transcripts of the official Navy list, showing pay and allowances for each officer, were also prepared, by fiscal years, usually from the official list issued the preceding January, with necessary corrections for deaths, resignations, etc. These appeared only in the Congressional set, as follows:

1848 [540-36]	1852 [677-35]	1856 [900-58]	1860 [1101-78]
1849 [576-27]	1853 [721-44]	1857 [956-73]	1861 [1127-24]
1850 [599-29]	1854 [783-49]	1858 [1008-101]	1862 [None issued.]
1851 [677-13]	1855 [851-36]	1859 [1048-38]	1863 [1163-77]

A list of Navy registers 1814-91, with brief history, was issued by Navy Department, 1891; see N1.2:R26.]

N1.11¹: Navy regulations

[From 1865 to 1899, each edition of Regulations for government of Navy was supplemented by a series of Navy regulation circulars; see N1.5¹⁻⁶: Changes in the regulations of 1900 were published in the series of General orders (N1.13:). Beginning 1905, a numbered series of Changes in Navy regulations was begun; see N1.11²:

Entries given below for certain of the Navy regulations which are not in the Public Documents Library were taken from a list on p. 3 of Navy regulations, 1909 (N1.11¹:909).]

- (date of meeting) [The Naval Militia Association is an organization having as its officers representative members of the naval militia organizations of the various States, the object being to advance naval militia throughout the United States.
The proceedings of annual meetings held at Washington, D. C., Jan. 14, 15, 1904 and Dec. 12, 13, 1905 were published, with slightly different titles, as Congressional documents; see [4592-265] and [4915-435].
The transactions for 1909 and later years are printed by Navy Department under a portion of the act for "arming and equipping naval militia," which provides for "printing or purchase of necessary books of instruction" for the naval militia.]

† On Dec. 1, 1909, by order of the Secretary of the Navy, dated Nov. 18, 1909 and promulgated by the publication entitled Changes in Navy regulations, 1909, no. 6 (N1.11²:909⁶), the work in connection with the naval militia was transferred to the Division of Personnel. This division is not a publishing office and hence has no classification in this Checklist.

The naval appropriation act approved Mar. 4, 1911 included in the appropriation for "arming and equipping naval militia" a provision for "salaries of the necessary clerical force and office expenses in the Navy Department, at Washington, D. C.," dating from the approval of the act. This provision was the natural result of the increase of work connected with the naval militia. The provision did not establish what can be legitimately called a new division or bureau. There is merely an office, which is known as the "Office of Naval Militia." The office force consists (in 1911) of one naval officer, one clerk, and one messenger.

This Checklist ends with the publications of the calendar year 1909. In addition to the publications for 1909 issued since the transfer to the Division of Personnel and listed above in the body of this Checklist under N1.27¹⁻⁵., the Naval Militia Office in 1910 began two new series of publications, the titles of which are as follows:

- N1.27⁶: Naval Militia Office, Register of commissioned and warrant officers of naval militia
- (date) [First annual issue is Jan. 1, 1910. See, for earlier similar publications, N2.2:D62^{1,2} and N2.2:R26.]
