† On June 7, 1910, the Marine Corps began a series of Circulars. Only 7 numbers were issued, the last being no. 7 for Mar. 27, 1911, after which the series was merged into a new series entitled Marine Corps orders; see footnote class N9.9:

‡ No. 1 not printed; superseded by no. 237 of Navy Department General orders, 1st series (N1.13¹:237).

§ This Checklist ends with the publications of the calendar year 1909. The Marine Corps has since discontinued the General orders 2d series, Special orders 2d series, and Circulars (N9.4). The last issue in each series was as follows: General order 79, Mar. 25, 1911; Special order 75, Mar. 23, 1911; Circular 7, Mar. 27, 1911. For these 3 series the Marine Corps substituted a new series of publications, the first issue of which was for Apr. 20, 1911. This has necessitated a new class under N9., the series title of which is as follows:
