T. TREASURY DEPARTMENT

[The Treasury Department was the third Executive Department, having been created by act approved Sept. 2, 1789 (Stat. L. v. 1, p. 65).]

T1. SECRETARY

T1.1: Annual reports on state of finances [or Finance reports]

[By the act organizing the Treasury Department approved Sept. 2, 1789 (Stat. L. v. 1, p. 65), it was made the duty of the Secretary to prepare and report estimates of public revenue and public expenditures, and to make report and give information to Congress or either branch thereof in person or in writing, as required, respecting all matters referred to him by the Senate or House or which appertain to his office. Alexander Hamilton, the first Secretary of the Treasury, made no annual reports, but submitted papers on the public credit, a national bank, manufactures, and the establishment of a mint. Oliver Wolcott, who succeeded Hamilton as Secretary of the Treasury, made two reports on the receipts and expenditures of the Government, one to the Committee of Ways and Means, Apr. 27, 1798, and the other to the House of Representatives Feb. 21, 1800.

By act approved May 10, 1800 (Stat. L. v. 2, p. 79), it was made the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to prepare and lay before Congress at the commencement of every session a report on the subject of finance containing estimates of public revenue and public expenditures. The first regular annual report is that of Albert Gallatin, 1801, and thereafter there is a consecutive series.

Beginning with 1817, the annual reports have appeared regularly in the Congressional set.

The Public Documents Library has an original print of the 1808 report, 7 p. f°, and a print of the Sept. 5, 1837, report, 16 p. 8°. Both are without the accompanying papers, which are included in the document editions thereof.

Reprints of the reports on the finances, Apr. 11, 1789-May 16, 1828, appear in American State papers, finance, v. 1-5; see serial nos. 09-013.

Another series of reprints was issued by order of the Senate. This series consists of 7 v., printed at different times from 1828 to 1851 and including reports 1790-1849. These volumes are listed below preceding the listing of the individual annual issues.

T1.1: Annual reports on state of finances [or Finance reports]—
Continued

Of the individual reports from 1817, the Public Documents Library has no edition without Congressional document number prior to 1871, except 1866, 1867, and 1869. Beginning 1871, there have been both Congressional and Department editions for each year.]

(v. nos.) Reports on finances, 1790–1849 (reprints of annual reports)

[The Senate, by resolution of Feb. 7, 1828 (Senate journal, serial no. 162, p. 140) provided that there be printed and bound 600 copies of the annual reports of the Secretary of the Treasury, including the reports of Alexander Hamilton. The reprinting of the annual reports continued until 1849. The first print, issued by Duff Green, consisted of 2 v. including the reports through 1828; the second print, by Blair & Rives, reprinted the first 2 v. and included a third, bringing the work down to 1836; later volumes continued the work to 1849.

This set includes, besides the annual reports, reprints of a few other papers on finance. These volumes are not in the numbered series of Congressional documents.]

T1.11¹: Treasury decisions

[From 1868 to 1897, the decisions were published monthly, though not infrequently decisions made during two and even three months were published in one pamphlet. These monthly numbers were bound up at the end of the calendar year into annual volumes. Beginning Jan. 1898, the decisions have been published weekly; see T1.11²:

The Public Documents Library has only annual volumes which have been bound in such wise that the identity of the individual numbers is lost. For this reason it is not practicable to list them here in detail.

The internal revenue decisions are published at the end of the year in a separate volume. For 1900-03, the volumes of collected internal revenue decisions were issued from the office of the Secretary and also, in slightly different form, from the office of the commissioner of internal revenue. For 1904-09, they have been issued by the latter office only; see T22.8¹:

Beginning 1890, the decisions of the Board of General Appraisers (T20.) are also included in these volumes. Their decisions bear both a Treasury decisions number and a general appraisers' number. †

1899-1909, the volumes have been numbered consecutively, appearing semiannually since 1904-09.]

Synopsis of sundry decisions rendered by Treasury Department under tariff and other acts during year ending Dec. 31, —

1868 4° [Department decisions 1-319.]

1869 4° [Department decisions 320-524 (except 344).]

† Beginning in 1910, the decisions of the Court of Customs Appeals (Ju7.) are also published among the Treasury decisions, in accordance with the act establishing the court. See, for bound volumes of the Court of Customs Appeals Reports, footnote for Ju7.5:
